CHOY THREATENS TO SUE REVENUE MEN FOR ARREST

Declares He Was Illegally Detained, and Had Poppy-Dust on Prescription

That he was taken into custody without any legal authority is the complaint which has been made to local federal court officials by Choy Tong Song, alias Ah Choy, alias Ah Thoi, who was turned over to Deputy Marshal O. F. Helms yesterday afternoon by Ralph S. Johnstone and Edward Crabbe, deputy internal revenue collectors.

The defendant has been booked in the marshal's office under an act approved December 17, 1914, which relates to the importation, manufacture, compounding, sale, disposition or giving away of opium or coca leaves, their salts, derivatives or preparations. A hearing of the case was to be had this afternoon before Commissioner George S. Curry.

The claim has been made by the defendant that he was detained for about three hours by the deputy revenue collectors before he was turned over to the marshal's office, where a legal arrest was made upon a warrant sworn to by District Attorney Jeff McCann.

Morning on CHANGE

The news that the Honolulu Sugar Company directors had voted to increase their dividend from $1 to $1.50 per share each month, beginning June 5, had a grating effect on the market this morning. Sales this morning totaled 280 shares and between boards deals amounted to 779 shares. Hawaiian Commercial, McBryde, Olan and Onomea were the leaders.

CANNOT COME SO FAR FROM HOME THIS YEAR

The board of directors of the National Chamber of Commerce of the United States will be unable to make their homeward visit to Hawaii this year, according to a letter received yesterday by Raymond H. Brown, secretary of the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce, from E. H. Goodwin of Washington, D. C., secretary of the national organization.

The directors, who each year make a tour to some part of the Union, will be unable to come as far as Hawaii this year on account of uncertain conditions caused by the war, writes Mr. Goodwin.

The trial of the assumpsit suit of Herbert G. Lowry against the Athletic Park will begin in Judge Whitney's division of the circuit court Wednesday morning, May 26, at 9 o'clock.

DON'T EAT PEANUTS! CAUSE APPENDICITIS.

Cases of appendicitis have been directly traced to peanuts. Honolulu people who eat indigestible foods should guard against appendicitis by taking twice a week ONE SPOONFUL buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika. This mixture is so POWERFUL and cleanses bowels so thorough ANY CASE constipation, sour or gassy stomach. ONE bottle has relieved mild cases appendicitis. Most medicines act only on lower bowel; Adler-ika acts on BOTH lower and upper bowel. TEN MINUTES after taking, effect begins—the INSTANT action is surprising. Although powerful, it works GENTLY and NEVER gripes. The Hollister Drug Co.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Honolulu Chapter No. 1, R. A. M., will hold stated meeting at 5 o'clock tonight.

Oceanic Lodge No. 371, F. and A. M., special, third degree, tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Thirty-eight cases are pending, to Thirty-eight cases are pending to oral court. Eight defendants are in jail.

Further trial was had in Circuit Judge Stuart's court today of the $250 damage suit of Martin Grune against S. H. Cox.

Circuit Judge Whitney today appointed K. Ikki temporary administrator of the estate of Shiraori, deceased. A satisfaction of judgment was filed in circuit court today by K. Honda relating to the assumpsit suit brought by him against the Island Investment Co.

Governor Pinkham today approved the amended charter of the Sodetade Luthana Beneficente De Hawaii following the opinion of the attorney-general holding the amended articles legal according to form.

"The Framework and Power Transmission" will be the subject for the "How to Keep Well" lecture by Dr. W. C. Hobdy at the Y. M. C. A. tonight. The lecture begins at 7:45. This is the seventh lecture in the course.

The cornerstone of the new Salvation Army home in Manoa will be laid Monday, May 24. Brig. Stillwell, secretary of the women's social work of the Salvation Army, now visiting in the city, will have the honor of laying the stone. Funds for the construction of the building were given by a Honolulu woman, who refuses to have her name divulged.

The sugar planters of Cuba have petitioned the government for a temporary repeal of the law which changes the measurement of Cuban sugar, in weight and value, from arrobas to pounds and from reales to dollars and cents. The change was made by a law which went into effect May 1. An arroba weighs 25 pounds. The planters say that the new law, going into effect in the middle of a shipping season, is having a confusing effect on business, and want it held in abeyance for a few months.

Police & Hospital Reports

Two Porto Rico women, who made the welkin ring in a Beretania street lodging house, the source winding up in a hair-pulling contest, were sternly lectured by District Magistrate Monsarrat today, who also fined each defendant $3 and costs.

Watanaro, a Japanese, who fell in a fit while passing along Nuuanu street Tuesday evening, died at Queen's hospital early this morning. Deputy Sheriff Asch ordered a post mortem. It was learned that death resulted from natural causes. No inquest will be held.

Hamiko Aoni, grieved at the action of his wife, used a pocket knife with suicidal intent, inflicting wounds in his neck and body which were treated at Queen's hospital. He is reported at the institution today as having a fair chance at recovery. The police were notified yesterday afternoon to take charge of a Japanese who had cut his throat in a house near the U. S. experiment station in Makiki valley. The woman said that she had separated from her husband and he had tried to effect a reconciliation.

Pacifico, a Filipino, is today under arrest at police headquarters after an investigation concerning his complicity in a wholesale attempt at jail delivery. Captain of Detectives McDuffie believes he has sufficient proof to convict the Filipino of taking an active part in the proposed walkout from the Oahu prison. Several Filipinos, who had served sentences at the institution, had about completed a plan for assisting their friends to escape. One member of the party turned informer. A number of arrests by the officers have followed his confession.

JOSEPH F. SMITH COMING FRIDAY ON MANCHURIA

Joseph F. Smith of Salt Lake City, president of the Church of Latter Day Saints of Salt Lake City, will arrive at Honolulu tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the steamer Manchuria, from San Francisco, according to a wireless message received from the ship by Abraham Fernandez of this city.

Mr. Smith, who is accompanied by his wife and by Bishop Nibley of Salt Lake City, will remain in Honolulu a week, and will probably sail for Japan in the Tenyo Maru on May 28, and later on to the Philippine Islands.

The patriarch of the church, now 77 years of age, has not been to Honolulu for about 10 years. He spent four years here, 1854 to 1858, as a missionary.

Bishop Nibley is one of the elders of the Mormon church, a man of vast wealth and varied interests, including beet sugar refineries and railroads.

SUGAR FREIGHT RATES MAY SOON BE GIVEN RAISE

A contemplated change in freight tariffs on sugar from Honolulu to the Delaware breakwater may result in a general upset of the shipping arrangements of the Sugar Factors' Company, Limited, according to waterfront gossip.

The Sugar Factors have a contract with the American-Hawaiian line for transportation of sugar to the Atlantic coast. This contract expires in the early fall, and rumor has it that a tilt of about $2 a ton in the freight tariff will be asked by the carriers before a renewal is made. The sugar taken to the Pacific coast on the Matson line is not carried under contract at present, it is understood.

In settling the estate of Richard Mehle, a seaman on the ship Santa Marie, who died from a fractured skull while at sea and who was buried in Honolulu, the federal court clerk's office made 17 cents. Mehle left $44.92 in cash. His funeral expenses were $44.75.
